WORLD Israel announces West Bank settlement

Ex President Campaigns for invalid votes

Barred from appearing on Sunday's ballot, former leftist president Evo Morales has launched a scrappy campaign for a presidential contender with no name, no face and no formal platform. The contender's known as "Nulo" - Spanish for the null-and-void vote. Nulo has a reliable base in Bolivia, where voting is compulsory. The cocafarming union leader disqualified from the race and seeking to distance himself from the unpopular President Luis Arce and other leftists associated with Bolivia's worst economic crisis in four decades. Morales has emerged as Nulo's greatest champion.

AID GROUPS CALL ON ISRAEL TO END 'WEAPONISATION' OF AID IN GAZA erusalem: More than 100 nonprofit groups warned on Thursday that Israel's rules for aid groups working in the Gaza Strip and occupied West Bank will block much-needed relief and replace independent organisations with those that serve Israel's political and military agenda - charges that Israel denied. A letter signed by organisations including Oxfam, Doctors Without Borders and CARE accused Israel of "weaponising aid" as people starve in war-torn Gaza and using it as a tool to entrench control. The groups were responding to registration rules announced by Israel in March that require organisations to hand over full lists of their donors and Palestinian staff for vetting. The groups contend that doing so could endanger their staff and give Israel broad grounds to block aid if groups are deemed to be "delegitimising" the country or supporting boycotts or divestment.

announcement comes as the Palestinian Authority and Arab countries condemned Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's statement in an interview on Tuesday that he was "very" attached Israel. He did not elaborate, but supporters of the idea believe that Israel should control not only the occupied West Bank but parts of Arab countries.

Critics of the E1 project say would split the West Bank, cut off East Jerusalem, which Palestinians want to be their future capital, and make a contiguous Palestinian State impossible.

Pak announces creation of new Army Rocket Force

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Islamabad

Pakistan has announced the creation of a new force - the Army Rocket Force Command - equipped with modern technology and intended to serve as a "milestone" in strengthening its combat capabilities.

Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif made the announcement at an event late Wednesday night to mark the 79th Independence Day and commemorate the recent fourday military confrontation with India. "On this occasion, today. I announce the formation of the Army Rocket Force Command,' Prime Minister Sharif said at the event attended by President Asif Ali Zardari, the three services chiefs, and national and foreign dignitaries.

"Equipped with modern technology and capable of targeting the enemy from every direction, this force will prove another milestone in further strengthening our conventional war capabilities," he said. He, however, provided no further details about the new force or its responsibilities.

Pakistan's new force command is apparently inspired by its all-weather ally China's People's Liberation Army Rocket Force, which controls arsenal of land-based ballistic, hypersonic, cruise missiles - both nuclear and conventional.

Sharif's announcement came days after Pakistan Army Chief Asim Munir's nuclear threat against India from US soil and former foreign minister Bilawal Bhutto Zardari's remarks that if India forces Pakistan into war, the nation will not back down. The prime minister termed the military confrontation between Pakistan and India in May as a "major victory" and credited the country's nuclear capability as a strategic necessity in response to India's atomic power.

He claimed that "in just four days, India's arrogance was shattered." He extended gratitude to US President Donald Trump for what he called "facilitating a ceasefire between India and Pakistan", and underscored that the Kashmir issue should be resolved in accordance with UN resolutions.
